ADAIR COUNTY EXTENSION HOMEMAKERS

May/June 2023

Dylan and Lesley on Vacation

May has been a very busy month! This newsletter includes recaps and photos of many exciting things we have accomplished in the past month. I am thankful that the weather has decided to stay consistently warm. During this time of the year, I enjoy visiting the drive-in movie theater; I especially enjoy watching classic movies such as Jurassic Park. If this summer presents an opportunity for you to visit a drive-in theater, I encourage you to breakout your battery powered radio and go see a movie.

The KEHA State Meeting was held at the Crown Plaza in Louisville in May. At the state cultural arts competition, 14/17 of our entries received 1st place. First place winners in individual categories included: Cayce Davenport, Sharon Bledsoe, Amanda Abbott, Gerri Reynolds, Annette Curry, and Cheryl Olson. Extra congratulations to Gerri Reynolds for receiving Grand Champion in the embroidery category.

On a personal note- I traveled to Orange Beach, Alabama, for a little break- enjoying a nice vacation at the beach with my girlfriend, Lesley.

There are many things Homemakers have to look forward to during the upcoming summer break. On Monday, June 19th at 5:30 p.m. we will have our Homemaker's County Annual Meeting here at the Extension Office. Additionally in July we will be having our Floral Hall Competition. All Homemaker members are encouraged to participate. More information for both of these events, refer to more details included in this newsletter.

Have a great summer!
